Valley Youth Theatre Brings The Magical Land of Narnia to Life on Stage October 13-29

PHOENIX (August 29, 2006)— Experience the adventures of four children who enter a mysterious old wardrobe that leads to a magical land! Valley Youth Theatre presents the C.S. Lewis classic Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe October 13-29 in downtown Phoenix. This musical dramatization faithfully recreates the magic and mystery of Aslan, the great lion, his struggle with the White Witch, and the adventures of four children who inadvertently stumble into the exciting, never-to-be-forgotten Narnia. The intense action that follows features chases, duels and escapes as the witch plots to keep Narnia in her possession and to end the reign of Aslan. It is a story of love, of faith, of courage and giving, where good triumphs over evil—a true celebration of life.

Valley Youth Theatre is excited to bring the musical version of this beloved adventure story to life on stage, “says Bobb Cooper, Producing Artistic Director. “The music, costumes and settings will enthrall younger and older audiences alike.”

Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe performs at Valley Youth Theatre October 13-29. Tickets are $18.00 each and group discounts are available for groups of 20 or more. Performances are Friday nights at 7:30 p.m., Saturdays at 12:00 and 3:30 p.m. and Sundays at 12:30 and 4:00 p.m. Call 602-253-8188 x 2 or visit www.VYT.com.

Valley Youth Theatre is a non-profit organization, which targets kids aged 7-19 for attendance at and participation in quality live theatre productions. Its positive impact on youth provides them with lifelong lessons through a wide range of performing arts opportunities.
